

Parking provision not required for an application of this type as stated by Wokingham planning in a telephone call 24/04/2018 as no additional rooms are being created. The garden to the front of the property is being converted into a driveway to offer additional off-street parking but that does not form part of this planning application.