COMMENTS:
As the adjoined neighbour we support this application.

However, and as previously discussed and agreed with the owner, we would like noise insulation applied to the 66 side of the mutual wall that separates 66 and 68 Finchampstead Road. This is the southern wall of 66 on ground and first floors including and particularly the staircase.

This is required because the walls do not currently offer good sound insulation and we would often hear talking and people going up and down the stairs when the building was used as a clinic. When the building is returned to a domestic dwelling there is risk that the new neighbours could disturb us, and we disturb them, 24/7 if sound insulation is not improved.

Noise insulation cannot be applied to the walls on the 68 side as it would impact the original Georgian egg and dart cornicing.

As mentioned above, I have previously discussed this with the new owner and he has agreed to install appropriate noise insu lation.
