

Community Involvement Statement

Due to the minor nature of the proposed development (replacement windows) any public consultation would be unnecessary.

However, the proposals have been shown to the neighbour and the freeholder who have confirmed no objection subject to compliance with the relevant planning requirements.