

Summary

Blue headers are handmade bricks with a traditional blue edge.

Historically produced as a by-product of ancient brick manufacturing methods, they are used to create flemish brickwork bonds as well as beautiful decorative detailing.

These bricks are ideally suited to conservation or restoration projects or for a creative and decorative enhancement to brickwork.

Available in 68mm imperial and metric size, fully frost resistant and manufactured to BS EN 771-1 standards.

Screenshot