COMMENTS:

I want to object to the full application of Dun Elms due to the 2x static caravans which are proposed to be placed. on the north side of the property. Due to the deciduous natural hedgerow, which becomes very sparse during autumn and winter, it will have great impact on my privacy. I am hoping this can be resolved with a substantial form of screening, which will negate this from happening.

Under the Human Rights Act, in particular protocol 1, article 1, which states that a person has the right of peaceful enjoyment of all their possessions, which includes a home and other land, I feel that this objection encompasses this act.

Article 8 of the Human Rights Act states that a person has the substantive right to respect for their private and family life. In the case of Britton vs SOS the courts reappraised the purpose of the law and concluded that protection of the countryside fall within the interests of Article 8 private and family life. Not only could this potentially affect my property, but also the proposed inhabitants of the proposed caravans.
