

An aerial map of a residential neighborhood. A specific lot, labeled '65', is highlighted with a red rectangular outline. This lot contains a large, L-shaped building and a smaller, rectangular building with a flat roof. Surrounding this central lot are several other residential properties, each with a grey-shaded building footprint. These are labeled with numbers: '71' to the northwest, '67' to the west, '57' to the northeast, and '47' to the southeast. A road labeled 'COLLINS DRIVE' runs along the top edge of the map. A road labeled 'Drains' runs horizontally across the middle, below the central lot. A road labeled 'FB' runs vertically on the left side, intersecting the 'Drains' road. The map shows street layouts, lot boundaries, and building footprints.

An aerial map of a residential neighborhood. A central property is outlined in red. This property contains a large, L-shaped building with a hatched section and a smaller, rectangular building with a hatched section. To the north of the red-outlined property is a street labeled 'COLLINS DRIVE'. To the south is a street labeled 'Drains'. To the west is a street labeled 'FB'. Several other properties are visible, some with house numbers: 71, 67, 57, and 47. The map shows various building footprints, streets, and a grid of lot lines.
