| Site: | 19 Haddon Drive, Woodley, Wokingham, RG5 4LX |
| Application: | Application for a certificate of lawfulness for the proposed erection of a single storey rear extension following demolition of the existing single storey structure and rear chimney, with changes to fenestration and demolition of the front porch and detached garage. |

1. Relevant Planning History

| Application Number | Proposal | Decision Date | Decision | Relevant Conditions |
|--------------------|----------|---------------|----------|---------------------|
| N/A | | | | |

2. Site Description

19 Haddon drive is situated in the residential area of Woodley. The dwelling is a semi-detached property set back from the curtilage. All other dwellings are similar in style and shape and this is consistent throughout this area.

3. Land/ Property Designations

- There are no listed buildings at the site and the property is not within 'Article 2(3) land' (Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015).
- The site is not subject to any wildlife or habitat designations.

4. Legislation

Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)

- s.55 Provides that 'development' includes the carrying out of building operations on land, and 'building operations' includes structural alterations or additions to buildings.
- s.57 Planning permission is needed for all development of land.
- s.187a Enforcement for breach of conditions
- s.192 Applications for Certificates of Lawfulness of proposed use or development.
- s.191 Defines operations as 'lawful' if:
- (a) No enforcement action may be taken in respect of them (whether because they did not involve development or require planning permission or because the time for enforcement action has expired or for any other reason); and
- (b) They do not constitute a contravention of any of the requirements of any enforcement notice then in force.

Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 (GPDO)

- Article 3 In conjunction with Schedule 2 (Part 1) (Class A) grants planning permission for the "enlargement, improvement or other alteration of a dwellinghouse".
- Article 4 Provides that the planning authority may give direction to restrict the effect of Article 3.

5. The Public Sector Equality Duty (Equality Act 2010):

In determining this application the Council is required to have due regard to its obligations under the Equality Act 2010. The key equalities protected characteristics include age, disability, gender, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief. There is no indication or evidence (including from consultation on the application) that persons with protected characteristics as identified by the Act have or will have different needs, experiences, issues and priorities in relation to this particular planning application and there would be no significant adverse impacts as a result of the development.

6. Relevant details of the proposal:

This proposal seeks to erect a single storey rear extension, following demolition of existing single storey structure and rear chimney, with changes to fenestration and demolition of front porch and detached garage.
