

The proposed works are supported by site-specific requirements relating to security and vegetation management.

Evidence provided includes a site plan identifying the trees in question, along with photos of said work.

Due to the sensitive nature of the site, detailed security information and layouts cannot be fully disclosed; however, the works have been requested to maintain compliance with site security standards and operational requirements.

All works will be carried out in accordance with industry best practice and relevant arboricultural standards.