COMMENTS:

This land has been a memory holding, fun loving countryside eye beauty. My Nanny and late grandad have fond memories of this lovely green land aswell as my mother growing up, quite literally with these landscapes on her back door step, we really hope they can stay green fields forever and keep our countryside intact.

Also this would make our village way too busy for the lovely roads we still have. We don't want big industrial buildings and trucks coming into our slowly disappearing green acres of fun and love.

Please keep our fields
