COMMENTS:

The plans drawn up for the property this year appear to be much the same as last year, the only apparent visual difference being the lack of the two columns either side of the front door. My objections still stand: too pretentious, not in keeping with other properties in this cul de sac part of the street and the front boundary too near to the road which is used as parking for numerous vehicles belonging to the owners. This property is very large, too big for the area on which it is to be built.
