

The community will not be affected by this proposal as the signal box can only be operated by authorised persons of the railway club