

Parking Provision Statement

The proposed development involves a minor extension of the front garden fence and repositioning of the entrance gate within the curtilage of the existing dwelling.

There is no change to the current parking arrangement. The development will not reduce, restrict, or alter any on-street or off-street parking provision, and does not impact vehicular access to or from the property.