

Parking Provision Details 60 Ryhill Way

There are currently four parking spaces on the private drive of the property. These are adequate to provide parking needed following the proposed development. These four spaces will remain available for parking following the development.

There are an additional two parking spaces in the integral garage proposed to be converted to habitable accommodation. However, these parking spaces have not been used for the past several years.