

The work to be done is routine maintenance of the tree to ensure its continued health and the safety of pedestrians and the surrounding structures.