
Interested party 28

Comments	We would like to object to the proposed project on the grounds of multiple negative effects it will have on the residents of Remenham Row. These are overbearing windows; looking directly onto the premises and into homes, thus taking away privacy. The height of the buildings will spoil the views residents currently enjoy lay and the noise, traffic and work at early hours will be causing stress for residents. We also suspect loss of light Close
Supporting documents	No documents