Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

Construction of a single-storey detached garden room/outbuilding on the side garden to provide ancillary accommodation, such as a home office or hobby room. The building will be approximately 30.8 m² in floor area, with a pitched roof using tiles to match the existing house. External walls will be faced with brick slips and vertical timber cladding. The proposal includes double-glazed windows and slim rooflights.

Has the work already been started without consent?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Materials

Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally?

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:

Walls

Existing materials and finishes:

The rear garden is currently open garden land with no existing outbuilding walls.

Proposed materials and finishes:

Lower walls faced in red brick slips to match the existing cottage, with vertical natural timber cladding above.

Type:

Roof

Existing materials and finishes:

No existing outbuilding roof as the garden is currently open.

Proposed materials and finishes:

Pitched roof covered with clay tiles to match the existing cottage; includes slim, low-profile rooflights.

Type:

Windows

Existing materials and finishes:

No existing outbuilding windows; the proposal relates to a new structure in an open area of the garden.

Proposed materials and finishes:

New double-glazed windows to match the style of the existing cottage; slim profiles and similar proportions to existing house windows.

Type:

Doors

Existing materials and finishes:

No existing outbuilding doors; the proposal relates to a new structure within the garden.

Proposed materials and finishes:

New glazed and timber doors designed to match the style of the existing cottage; double-glazed for energy efficiency.

Are you supplying additional information on submitted plans, drawings or a design and access statement?

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Site Visit

Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No

If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact?

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
