Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

I would like to add a small extension to the rear of my house. It would be 2.5x2.75m in total.

It would come out from the rear along the fence line between mine and my next door neighbours house. They have a conservatory on the other side of the fence which comes out to roughly the what I would like.

I would have a flat roof and potentially have sky light in the centre.

I already have external doors leading out into the garden which would be the access point for the new extension from the house so would not be needing to make any changes to the original structure just adding onto it.

Has the work already been started without consent?

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.
