

Parking Provision

There are three existing car parking spaces on the front drive. The proposed development will not affect the parking provision. The ancillary accommodation is for an elderly dependent relative with no additional requirement for parking.