

Biodiversity

The application is a householder development and is therefore exempt from mandatory biodiversity net gain (BNG) requirements

This application does not involve alterations to the house and there is no impact on existing habitats.