

P4

This architectural elevation drawing shows a three-story brick building with a red-tiled roof. The building features several dormers with white trim and multiple windows, some with balconies. The facade is primarily red brick, with some sections in a darker red. The drawing is labeled 'P4' at the top center.