

Biodiversity Report

A visual check to the existing structure showed limited potential bat access points leading into the roof void, the roof is in good condition with no damaged or lifted tiles .No bat droppings are found internally or externally , so the presence of void-dwelling bats is unlikely.

