

Planning Statement

The existing building started life as a site hut which when the site it was situated on came to an end was offered to the Village Halls for the temporary use by the local Scout Group and other communal uses

The new building is required due to the existing having fallen into a general state of disrepair

It is very damp and not really very healthy, there is little insulation so costs a fortune to run

Unfortunately it is too far gone to bring back to a usable condition