

Thank you.

I believe this was all in the application; however it was identified on a recent visit from WBC when inspecting another tree that this Ash was showing signs of Ash Die Back and due to its location near a path and the age of the residents here it was a hazard.