

The development is situated on an area of patio and lawn.

It is not located in a sensitive ecological area.

The proposal, as completed, would not lead to any environmental harm. As such, it is considered that a survey is not required.