

The application is supported by a sketch plan showing the location of the tree in relation to boundaries and buildings, together with photographs showing the tree and a fungal fruiting body at the base of the trunk. No additional documentary evidence is available at this stage.