

| Ref No. | Common Name(Scientific Name)                                  | Age Class   | Height | Stem Diameter | Crown Spread                             | Crown Clearance                      | Condition  |               | RPA               |        | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Remaining Life Expectancy | Category / Sub-category |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|--------|---------------|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------|---------------|-------------------|--------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------|
|         |                                                                   |             |        |               |                                          |                                      | Structural | Physiological | Area              | Radius |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                           |                         |
| 1T      | LoquatEriobotrya japonica                              | Semi-mature | 4m     | 150mm         | N - 1mE - 0.5mS - 1mW - 0.5m | N - 2m                               | Unknown    | Good          | 10m <sup>2</sup>  | 1.8m   | Off site tree viewed over boundary.                                                                                                                                                                      | 10+ Years                 | C1/2                    |
| 2G      | A Group                                                           | Semi-mature | 3m     | 150mm         | N - 1mE - 1mS - 1mW - 0.5m   | N - 0mE - 0mS - 0mW - 0m | Good       | Good          | 10m <sup>2</sup>  | 1.8m   | Group of 3x shrubs. Species include cornus and laurel. Dimensions recorded for largest member of group.                                                                                                  | 10+ Years                 | C1/2                    |
| 3T      | Golden Weeping WillowSalix sepulcralis'Chrysocoma' | Semi-mature | 8m     | 690mm         | N - 2mE - 2mS - 1mW - 2m     | N - 3m                               | Good       | Good          | 222m <sup>2</sup> | 8.4m   | Pollard. Otherwise no significant features.                                                                                                                                                              | 20+ Years                 | B1/2                    |
| 4T      | Scots PinePinus sylvestris                             | Semi-mature | 10m    | 630mm         | N - 5mE - 5mS - 2mW - 3m     | N - 5m                               | Good       | Good          | 177m <sup>2</sup> | 7.5m   | Contorted crown form, lateral dieback to west. Dead limb at 8m to west: 160mm diameter and 5m long.                                                                                                      | 20+ Years                 | B1/2                    |
| 5T      | Aesculus indica                                                   | Semi-mature | 11m    | 390mm         | N - 6mE - 6mS - 5mW - 5m     | N - 2m                               | Poor       | Good          | 72m <sup>2</sup>  | 4.8m   | Part-recovered vertical lesions to stem, patches of dark exudate indicative of bacterial infection. Bifurcation at 2m into dominant and lesser stems, bark-inclusion line descends to ground, absence of | <10 Years                 | U                       |
| 6T      | Common Silver BirchBetula pendula                      | Semi-mature | 10m    | 370mm         | N - 2mE - 2mS - 2mW - 2m     | N - 6m                               | Poor       | Poor          | 64m <sup>2</sup>  | 4.5m   | Necrotic bark to stems. Standing-dead stems from 2.5m and 5m.                                                                                                                                            | <10 Years                 | U                       |
| 7T      | Purple-leaved CherryPrunus cerasifera 'Nigra'          | Semi-mature | 6m     | 600mm         | N - 2mE - 2mS - 2mW - 1m     | N - 2m                               | Fair       | Good          | 163m <sup>2</sup> | 7.2m   | Tight, included unions to base, fungal fruiting bodies (FFBs) Ganoderma sp. to base and lower stem. Majority crown topped at 5m.                                                                         | <10 Years                 | U                       |
| 8T      | Purple-leaved CherryPrunus cerasifera 'Nigra'          | Semi-mature | 5m     | 320mm         | N - 1mE - 2mS - 3mW - 3m     | N - 2m                               | Fair       | Good          | 48m <sup>2</sup>  | 3.9m   | Historic, necrotic pruning wound to base, fungal fruiting bodies (FFBs) Ganoderma sp. Historically topped at 5m.                                                                                         | 10+ Years                 | C1/2                    |
| 9G      | A Group                                                           | Semi-mature | 4m     | 100est.mm     | N - 1mE - 1mS - 1mW - 1m     | N - 2m                               | Unknown    | Good          | 5m <sup>2</sup>   | 1.2m   | Off site screening group of 4x shrubs and small trees viewed over boundary fence. Species include laurel, privet and hawthorn. Dimensions estimated for typical member of group.                         | 10+ Years                 | C1                      |
| 10T     | Common Silver BirchBetula pendula                      | Semi-mature | 12m    | 360est.mm     | N - 5mE - 5mS - 5mW - 2m     | N - 2m                               | Unknown    | Good          | 55m <sup>2</sup>  | 4.2m   | Off site tree viewed from afar over boundary fence.                                                                                                                                                      | 10+ Years                 | C1/2                    |