COMMENTS:

I strongly OBJECT to all that madness!

All this noise, early in the morning, it is in the middle of the new residential area, every day when I walk my dog in the park, it looks exactly like the sad futuristic films - right behind the park the teenagers started to destroy this summer, full with rubbish, you see these big grey walls behind the trees.

All that noise pollution, and mud, often I used to find excrement on the park alley, that leads to the street and I believe this is from the truck drivers that are staying (used to stay) overnight on the street...

Why do we have to destroy everything just because of someone's business?
