

Bio diversity statement
For planning application at 17 Holmewood close Wokingham

The application is for changes to cladding and window sizes. The extension is under permitted development.

The elevational changes will have no effect on the bio diversity of the site

The permitted development is partly on a paved area and the other half on short grass.

The owners have already improved the bio diversity by planting fruit trees and plants for pollinators and have installed a compost bin