COMMENTS:

There are few changes that I can see from the initial proposal to the newly named 'revised proposal'. Save for a few minor alterations, which quite frankly don't change anything for those residing at Remenham Row, there are no significant changes. The balconies have been removed from the plans however enormous dormer windows have been proposed instead. This still means that those living at Remenham Row will have people staring in to their property at all times.

It seems that the developer is purely after profit without any consideration for those living nearby and in particular those residents at Remenham Row who have time and again pointed out that this monstrosity of a build will impact negatively on their mental health and wellbeing.

Of the many reasons my parents bought their property the main ones were the fact that it was a quiet location with plenty of light and no-one to overlook them. The planner seems to have gone out of their way to ignore the objections of the elderly residents at Remenham Row and they can't even sell the ones that are already there !

This build will bring nothing but misery to those residing at Remenham Row and the increased traffic on an already congested road is going to be ridiculous on a permanent basis.

We strongly object to this proposal.
