

Statement re 380 Barkham Road Variation to application 251860

January 2026

The proposed rear element that was approved on application 251860 September last year is now going to be reduced in size because of cost constraints. The design remains at the same depth but reduce in width.