25th April 2000

Reference Conservatory to: 29 Rickman Close, Woodley, RG5 3LL

I write following my visit to your planning department on Thursday 20th April. I needed to speak with somebody about the various sections on the form that needed completing. I initially dealt with a gentleman named Jazz over five weeks ago when I first started dealing with the above-referred conservatory. I was informed by Jazz that planning permission would not be needed and he said he would send written confirmation to this effect. I was most unhappy to discover that Jazz had left the council and then told that planning permission was now needed.

When I visited your department on Thursday I spoke with Emy Circuit who advised that, because of the urgency of the situation and the fact that the original information given was incorrect, the elevation drawings would not be necessary.

I do hope a speedy conclusion can be brought about.

Yours sincerely

Paul Lewington
