welfare and veterinary treatment buildings to groom's accommodation.
(Retrospective)

Thank you for consulting the Gardens Trust in its role as Statutory Consultee on the above application which may have a material impact on the significance of the setting of Park Place and Temple Coombs, a Grade II* registered park and garden (RPG) included by Historic England on the Register of Parks and Gardens of Special Historic Interest. The inclusion of the site on this statutory register requires great weight to be given to its conservation. We have liaised with our colleagues in the Berkshire Gardens Trust and their local knowledge informs this joint response.

The RPG listing describes the site as 'Park Place, a C19 country house on the site of an earlier house, surrounded by C18 and C19 gardens and pleasure grounds and landscape park, with work in the mid to late C19 by Robert Marnock. A second, smaller estate, Temple Combe, developed during the late C18, lies enclosed within the Park Place estate.'

We have considered the retrospective proposals and we would like to offer our support to these proposals.

If you have any further queries, please contact us at this email address, and we would be grateful to be advised of the outcome of the application in due course.

Yours sincerely
