COMMENTS:

Firstly I would say that yet again, NO NOTICE WAS DISPLAYED at the property to inform there was another planning application in place.

Again, the parish council meeting was announced very late. We were told the meeting was tonight (13th January) by our neighbour, otherwise we would have been unaware of yet another planning application by the owners.

I still feel the height of the roofline and the upper windows are too high and. the overall look and scale of the property is still out of keeping with all the [properties at this end of Old Bath Road.

The car parking has been resolved to a degree but it is unlikely that cars would all park off road because each car would have to be moved if the person at the front needed to go out. This would more than likely mean still parking on the road.
