

Note on Proposed Works:

Since the last pruning these trees have increased in size and together with the dead wood needs to be put back in the position, they were following the last pruning exercise in 2020. Furthermore, the subsequent growth reduces the light to the house and the eastern side of the garden which inhibits the growth of other trees and shrubs.