

Biodiversity Statement

Peri, Loddon Drive, Wargrave

July 2025

The proposal does not impact any environment for biodiversity considerations, being above ground, adjacent an existing rendered wall, having no impact on any tiles/roofing.

The existing hedgerows and garden features are to be maintained, therefore it is considered that the environment remains as for the current house, and consequently no further survey is required.