

Both trees I believe were recently inspected and provisionally agreed they could be removed due to their low amenity value and significant decay in the bases. I understand they are not likely to be included in the new TPO's list however my client is keen to get them removed and is not aware of the date the new TPO will be confirmed.

Many thanks

Warren Aspey