This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Details of the pre-application advice received

I am listing below a summary of the pre-application advice received. I will also attach full pre-application advice document.

Summary

The proposed two-storey side extension, two-storey rear extension and single storey rear extension would not result in any adverse harm to the character of the area or neighbouring amenity and would accord with local and national policy, so would likely be acceptable in a formal planning application. It is recommended that minor amendments are made to fenestration sections, the new gable height reduced slightly and materials for the flat roof of the proposed porch changed to match the rest of the porch and make it more complimentary to the host dwelling. If it can be clearly demonstrated that the site can facilitate 3 off-street parking within the site boundary, then there should be no Highways objection.

Once you are ready, we would recommend that you obtain several quotes from planning agents and employ one to submit your planning application for you.

Householder applications can be submitted on the Planning Portal website. Please use the information available on the council's how to apply for planning permission page to help you submit the right plans and documents.

In addition to the application form, community infrastructure levy form and application fee, we would expect to see:

- Location Plan
- Site Plan
- Parking Plan
- Existing and Proposed Floor Plans
- Existing and Proposed Elevation Plans
- Section Plans

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.
