COMMENTS:

We own the property next to Cousins House, 5 Reading Road, and at one time we owned Cousins House formerly known as MASDAR House. As owners of Cousins House we were especially conscious of the fact that it was a gateway property to both Finchampstead Village and Eversley Village. As a consequence we landscaped the property to provide attractive river frontage. The current plans to increase parking will lead to oil contamination of the river which will impact fauna and flora of the river. We own the fields on the south side of the river and are concerned that future contamination will spread along the river. In addition, we own 5 Reading Road next to Cousins House and believe the extension of the car park and even greater activity will increase noise pollution day and night from vehicles and staff.

This property and location are not suitable for a transport hub.
