COMMENTS:

The proposed planning application is inappropriate as there are a number of developments that still have excess properties unsold demonstrating that further construction is unnecessary. In addition it falls in the AWE evacuation zone which is clear that there should be no further domestic properties as this could endanger lives. The infra structure can not cope with further dwellings. The roads can not cope with current traffic let alone further traffic generated by further homes. Added to this there is insufficient health care and education places for the current residents, with out adding further individuals.

It will damage critical wildlife habitats including endangered species like voles and reptiles.

The area is over developed, roads can not cope and protected wildlife, flora and for a would be lost forever.
