

Location diagram

Satellite view

Pictures of sudden branch drop – 1st July 2026

Brownish tinge to the tree is caused by the density of nuts – the highest level we have seen since moving in 32 years ago

Location of fracture

Fracture – no sign of rot although wood was quite dry and smaller branches lacking flexibility. Lack of water and heat the likely cause.
The fallen branch was heavy and potentially life threatening but fortunately fell at 11:30pm.